Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability;
citations and explanations supporting such statement aforementioned light-emitting display body and display structure set forth in document 1 correspond to the invention set forth in claims 1, 2 and 5 of this application.

Claims 1 and 2

Document 2 sets forth a display structure provided with a first light-transmitting pattern layer to which a pattern has been applied using a light accumulation material, and a second pattern layer part for display under normal conditions.

Document 3 sets forth a display structure provided with a light transmission controlling layer part, a light-transmitting pattern layer part, and a light-emitting part in that order.

It would therefore be obvious to a person skilled in the art to provide the first pattern layer part set forth in document 2 to the display structure set forth in document 3.

Claims 1 and 4

Document 4 sets forth a display structure provided with a light-transmitting pattern layer part, a light transmission controlling layer part and a light-emitting part in that order.

It would therefore be obvious to a person skilled in the art to provide the first pattern layer part set forth in document 1 or 2 to the display structure set forth in document 4, and to position the first pattern layer part between the light-transmitting pattern layer part and the light transmission controlling layer part.
